SAMUEL M. MECUM

ESQUIRE

Samuel M. Mecum grew up in Lancaster County, graduating from Manheim Township High School in 1966. He received a B.A. in History from Penn State, with Distinction (cum laude) in 1970, then graduated from Villanova University School of Law in 1973. Sam has been engaged in the private practice of law in Lancaster County since 1974. His practice is now concentrated on estate planning and probating Wills, landlord-tenant, real estate and civil litigation (a major part of which has been family law cases) and he has co-presented annual seminars on Landlord-Tenant Law for 15 consecutive years. Sam received the Access to Justice Award for pro bono service in 2001, served eight years as Chair of the Lancaster Law Review Committee, and was elected President of the Lancaster Bar Association for the year 2006. Sam has served on Boards of nonprofit organizations devoted to historic preservation, such as the James Buchanan Foundation (former Board President) and is currently President of Grave Concern, Inc., which preserves historic burial places. In November 2013, Sam was elected to a four-year term as one of five part-time Manheim Township Commissioners, and he was re-elected for four more years of service to the Township. He serves as liaison to the Manheim Township Police Department, Code Compliance, and Planning and Zoning.
