James K. Noel, IV joins Appel, Yost & Zee with a wealth of experience from his previous firms. Graduating from Mount St. Mary's University with his BA and from Widener University with his J.D., Jamie completed a clerkship with the Honorable Wayne G. Hummer, Jr., senior family law judge for the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County, Pa. Jamie began practicing in 1991 and since has provided a comprehensive range of legal services to individuals, families, businesses, and banking institutions. In addition to general business matters, Jamie has working knowledge in the areas of estate administration, trust and estate planning. Jamie has also served as a court-appointed Orphan's Court Master and has assisted his clients in various areas of adversarial and non-adversarial Orphan's Court proceedings. Jamie also continues to concentrate his practice in a wide variety of family law proceedings, including experience in matters concerning divorce, custody, support, equitable division of assets as well as prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, name changes and adoptions.
